

Climate Change and Health

Duodecim – UTA Global Health Summit

Finlandia Hall, Helsinki, 2nd June, 2014 at 13.00–17.00

Program:

12.00–13.00 Registration and coffee

13.00–13.15 Opening of the symposium
Dr. Matti Rautalahti, General Secretary,
The Finnish Medical Society Duodecim

Rationale for the Duodecim – UTA Global Health Summits

Prof. Per Ashorn, Director of the Program for Global Health and Development, University of Tampere, Finland

13.15–14.00 Climate change – how inconvenient can it get?

Ms. Reija Ruuhela, Senior climate expert, Climate Service Centre,
Finnish Meteorological Institute

14.00–14.45 Health impacts and how should health professionals respond?

Prof. Anthony Costello, Director of the UCL Institute for Global Health, University College London

14.45–15.15 Coffee break

15.15–16.00 The worst-case scenario – armed conflicts because of degrading environments

Mr. Pekka Haavisto, MP, Minister for International Development, Government of Finland

16.00–16.45 Climate change, health and the curse of living dead

Mr John Ashton, Independent commentator and formerly climate change envoy for three successive UK Foreign Secretaries

16.45–17.00 Closing remarks

Dr. Matti Rautalahti, General Secretary,
The Finnish Medical Society Duodecim

More information and registration:

www.globalhealth.fi, www.duodecim.fi/koulutus

Registration is open until 19th May, 2014

SUPPORTED BY OFFICIAL
DEVELOPMENT AID FROM THE MINISTRY
FOR FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF FINLAND

DUODECIM

UNIVERSITY
OF TAMPERE

